TERRIBLE TALE IS TOLD

Thomas Pattman Says There Was a Plot To

KILL SAPPER AND JOHNSON

Man Charged With Murder of Deputy Marshal and Wounding of Another Claims He Was Offered Money to Slay a Couple of Men.

Checotah, I. T., July 13.—The arrest of Thomas Pattman, alias Jack Baldridge, alias Bill Johnson, charged with the murder of Deputy Marshal Sam Roberts and the wounding of Deputy Sapper, has brought to light an alleged desperate plot to murder Deputy Marshal Sapper and William E. Johnson, the latter a special officer of the department of the interior. Pattman has turned state's evidence. According to his story, told before Commissioner Schofield here, the alleged plan to murder Sapper and Johnson was hatched while Pattman and Eugene Tittsworth were in jail together at Fort Smith. Tittsworth wanted Johnson and Sapper killed because he said they "had it in for him," and had caused them to be sent to jail for selling whiskey. Pattman was to receive $3,000 for doing the job. Pattman says that Tittsworth sent for him to come and work for him as soon he got out of jail and that he had been there but a short time when the murder occurred. He also states that Tittsworth gave him a suit of clothes, $50 in money and assisted in getting him away from the scene of the murder.

Pattman admits that he fired the shot that killed Sam Roberts, but says Tittsworth fired the shot that wounded Sapper. Tittsworth had had trouble with Sapper and Johnson in the past and the Tittsworth brothers were running a cider stand in which they were selling what are alleged to have intoxicating drinks when the tragedy occurred.

The government will use ten witnesses to attempt to prove that the story Pattman is telling is true. The Tittsworths claim that they will be able to disprove any conspiracy to kill Sapper and Johnson. The allegation that Johnson was to be murdered also will bring the department of the interior into the case, as Johnson is a special representative of Secretary Garfield.

TRANSACTION COMPLETED.

One of the Most Gigantic Affairs Known.

New Haven, July 13.—On high railroad authority it can be stated that the holdings of the New York, New Haven and Hartford, Railroad company in the Boston and Maine road, amounting approximately to 120,000 shares, now represent absolutely a completed transaction. The shares, it is understood, are held by trustees or other representatives of the New Haven company, and so far as the voting power exists, is voted by those representatives who draw Boston and Maine dividends. The stock of the New York, New Haven and Hartford company, share for share, and to the amount of $12,000,000, has been issued to the former Boston and Maine stockholders.

This whole 120,000 shares of the Boston and Maine stock were acquired previous to the passage of the anti-merger law in Massachusetts and none has been acquired since.

Talks with railroad officials here indicate the conviction that the Massachusetts anti-merger law is unconstitutional on several grounds, notably its interference with the rights of the Boston and Maine shareholders in other states than Massachusettes.

DOES NOT KNOW HER.

J. Pierpont Morgan Disclaims Any Acquaintance With Woman.

London, July 13.—J. Pierpont Morgan, appeared in the West London police court as a witness in the case of Mrs. Josephine Leslie, who was arrested at New Market July 4 charged with defrauding members of well known families by false pretenses, and who represented herself to be a friend of Mr. Morgan. The latter repudiated all knowledge of Mrs. Leslie. He said he did not write to her advising her to join one of his syndicates and never invited Mrs. Leslie, as alleged, to dine at his son's house. As a matter of fact, Mr. Morgan added, he was at New York at the time of the alleged invitation.

STATUE OF GARIBALDI.

Unveiled With Imposing Civil and Military Ceremonies.

Paris, July 13.—A statue of Garibaldi, Italy's gift to the city of Paris, was unveiled in Lowendal square with imposing civil and military ceremonies in the presence of President Falleries, cabinet ministers, diplomatic corps and other distinguished persons. Foreign Minister Richon and General Canzio, Garibaldi's son-in-law, made the principal addresses. A feature of the occasion was to defile the monument of French veterans.

RESOLUTION IS ADOPTED

It Was Offered by Professor Alexander Hogg.

SUGGESTIONS IT CONTAINS

Instructors Urged to Teach Broader Patriotism, More Extended Course of Moral Instruction, Citizenship Duties ank Sacredness of Human Life.

Los Angeles, July 13.—The National Educational association concluded its labors with the adoption of a series of resolutions, principal among which was one presented to the convention by Colonel Alexander Hogg, former superintendent of schools at Fort Worth, Tex. It reads:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this association that it is the duty of the teachers of this republic to at once enter upon a systematic course of instruction which shall embrace not only a broader patriotism, but a more extended course of moral instruction, especially regarding the rights and duties of citizenship, the right of property, the security and sacredness of human life."

Second in importance to this resolution was one upon the subject of simplified spelling, endorsing the work of the simplified spelling board, and directing the secretary of the association to adopt the shorter style of all the 300 selected words in the publications of the association. It carried by a vote of 209 to 22.

The resolutions further endorsed the efforts being made to increase salaries of teachers, urged abolishment of secret societies in schools, denouncing them as against the interest of the schools and pupils; declared for the merit system for promotion of teachers and against political intrigue and resolved strongly in favor of world peace and international arbitration.

LARGE ATTENDANCE.

It Was Brought About by Haywood's Cross-Examination.

Boise, Ida., July 13.—The cross-examination of Haywood brought out an unusually large attendance. When Clarence Darrow, Haywood's counsel, closed the direct examination of his client and quietly remarked: "You may cross-examine," the prisoner-witness turned in his chair and faced Mr. Borah, his face pale and jaws firmly set. There was a stir in the court room and then an absolute silence.

Borah's cross-examination, always rapid-fire, was more than usually quick, but from the first to last Haywood preserved complete self-possession and control.

Notwithstanding the subdued air of consideration, of quiet speech and courteous bearing maintained by Senator Borah and the defendant, there was not a moment throughout the three hours of cross-examination that the atmosphere did not tingle with possibilities. Once when Senator Borah pressed Haywood as to his sentiment toward former Governor Steunenberg, Haywod said quietly, and with a smile: "I felt no different towards, Steunenberg, senator, than I do towards you or any of these people."

Senator Borah looked up quickly, but he did not smile. He said very quietly: "Yes, I have been given to understand something of that sort," and did not pursue the subject.

Much of Haywood's testimony was a repetition in detail of what Moyer said Thursday. Haywood, however, made no effort to deny his knowledge of Orchard and his affairs or his connection with Simpkins. He was pressed closely as to the passage of telegrams relating to the engagement of counsel to defend Orchard, and in this connection admitted that he knew Simpkins had retained counsel, but that there was no record of any report from Simpkins to the officials of the Western Federation. Like Moyer, Haywood never heard Orchard make threats against Steunenberg, though he had heard of Orchard's claim that he had lost his interest in the Hercules mine because of the trouble in the Coeur d'Alenes. Haywood explained the draft to Simpkins for $100 on Dec. 21, 1905, on the ground that Simpkins had left the money with him for safe keeping. Simpkins had no acknowledgment of the receipt of the money, and Haywood had not heard from Simpkins since that time.

Haywood, in many particulars, confirmed Orchard, but where Orchard connected Haywood or the Western Federation with crime, the witness was very emphatic and prompt in his denials.

LOVED WIFE'S MOTHER.

Elopes With Her, and Spouse and Father-In-Law Seek Divorce.

Vienna, July 13.—A Spiritualist named Banninger, living in Budapest, eloped with his mother-in-law, the wife of a land owner named Deutsch. Banninger was dissatisfied with his wife because she was not interested in his seances. He found his mother-in-law devoted to Spiritualism. They came to Vienna preparatory to starting for the United States. While here they were robbed of all their belongings and returned to Budapest. Deutsch and his daughter are both suing for divorce.

EMMEL & MALONEY
DRUGGISTS

J. W. PAYNE,

Graduate of the Northern Illinois College of Ophthol-mology and Otology to Have Charge of J. M. Caldwell's Optical Department.

Beginning Tuesday, July 16th, I will take charge and be ready to devote all the time necessary in this department, to give to every person, desiring to have their eyes thoroughly and scientifically examined, such examination. I have been in Mr. Caldwell's employ for a number of years and during this time have spent two summers in St. Louis receiving special instruction in watch work, with seven months in Chicago last year completing the Optical course, also frequenting the wholesale optical houses, going through their manufacturing departments watching the grinding and polishing of lenses from the rough to the finished product ready to wear. I simply mention these facts to assure you I understand my business and that you should feel no hesitancy in giving me a trial.

SOME INDISPUTABLE FACTS.

You should guard your eyesight. Sixty per cent of all the headaches are caused through defective eyes. Eye strains when neglected may lead to a total loss of sight. Properly fitted glasses prevent eye strain and save the sight.

That Dull Scholar—Many so-called "dull scholars" are so because of some defect of the eye. Don't neglect the eyes of your children.

If you go on allowing your eyes to smart and ache and annoy, you may never be able to make them strong again. Now is the proper time to have them examined.

If you do not need glasses I will not tell you you do, just to get your money. You may have worn glasses for some time and when you bought them you just had to pick out a pair you thought you could see best with; while they may be better than no glasses at all, yet they are not the right thing. They are not what you ought to have.

Just remember that the wrong glasses are worse, sometimes, than no glasses at all, and if you want to know whether you are wearing your right correction call on me and I will tell you.

J. W. PAYNE,
Watchmaker and Optician.

INSPIRED BY HIS TEACHER.

It is with pride that the Texan refers to a little personal incident which occurred last Saturday afternoon when Bishop Ward and Frank Scott met after a separation of several years. The Bishop immediately recognized Mr. Scott, grasped his hand and shoulder, and said that he was the "first man who ever inspired him with a desire to amount to something." One of the last schools ever attended by Bishop Ward, in his young manhood, was that Professor Scott, when the latter first came to Texas and taught school in Leon county. The Scotts have a picture of the Bishop in a home-made cutaway jeans coat, and no doubt they hold it as one of their family treasures.—Franklin Central Texan.

SHOOT AT THE DUNN BARBECUE

Mr. Lum Holden of Tabor called on the Eagle while in the city yesterday and requested us to announce a shoot will be given by the Tabor Gun Club in connection with the Jim Dunn barbecue Wednesday, July 24, and all lovers of the sport are cordially invited to attend and participate. Plenty of shells will be provided on the grounds.

After a year's suspension on account of a serious accident to the editor-in-chief, Mrs. H. C. L. Gorman, the publication of "The Bohemian" has been resumed. This brave, talented little woman, whose struggles have been so effectual in establishing a good magazine in Texas, is deserving of a greater measure of success than even that which has attended her work in the past. We offer congratulations to Mrs. Gorman and to magazine lovers upon the re ap pearance of "The Bohemian."

ARRESTED AFTER TWELVE YEARS.

Mal Stabler Wanted in Alabama on Charge of Grand Larceny—Has Been Good Citizen of Brazos County.

Friday night Sheriff R. M. Nall and Constable C. L. Baker lodged in jail here Mal Stabler, Jr. arrested on a warrant from Alabama, and wanted at Monroeville, Monroe county, in that state on a charge of grand larceny alleged to have been committed twelve years ago.

Stabler, who is only twenty-eight years old, was a 16-year-old boy at the time, and has resided in Texas nearly ever since. He has been a good law abiding citizen ever since and has won the esteem of the people among whom he has resided. He was married less than a year ago to a young lady of this county, and is an industrious young farmer and has a good crop this year at his home on Thompson creek.

Sheriff Nall states that Stabler says that he was induced by another boy to go with him to the house, of a man and that the boy went in and took $70.00, and they were afterwards overtaken by the man and the money was returned by the other boy, and he (Stabler) had never had any of the money in his hands. His understanding was that this ended the matter and they were not to be prosecuted. He and the boy went to Mississippi and Stabler left him there and came to Texas.

He has made good his claim that he has endeavored to live right since he has been in Brazos county, and the hope is indulged that he will be able to get out of the trouble without difficulty. Sheriff Nall has notified Sheriff M. McF. Fountain of Monroe county, Ala., who wired back yesterday afternoon that he was leaving for Bryan.

The papers received by Sheriff Nall from Sheriff Fountain bear the signature of Gov. B. B. Comer of Alabama, and to the warrant there is attached a bond made out in the sum of $250. As the Eagle underetands it, however, this bond could not be executed here.

TAKE NO CHANCES.

Saloon Men at Austin Close Their Places of Business.

Austin, July 13.—The saloon men of Austin are taking no chances, and everything closed. Nothing will be sold until licenses are secured ten days hence, unless some court elsewhere should decide that it was proper to open during the interim.

There is one saloon man here whose place of business is on the same block with a church, and he owns his own property, having bought the brick structure not very long ago. The church and saloon are on extreme opposite corners through the entire length of the block, not being on the same street. If that saloon man should fail to secure the necessary signatures to his petition by property owners on the block his property will have to be sacrificed.

The Elks' club will be a popular resort for some ten days, as the new law cannot prevent the selling of liquor in private clubs, the decisions of courts having sustained the liquor sale in clubs without license, and it is now firmly established.

THIRTY CLERKS BUSY.

Comptroller's Office Unable to Mail All Saloon Permits First Day.

Austin, July 13.—The comptroller's office was unable to mail all the saloon permits Friday, and some saloon keepers will be delayed longer than ten days in getting their license. Some saloons have not even applied for a permit. There are between 4,000 and 5,000 saloons in Texas, and the filing and signing of the permits is no small task.

A force of about thirty clerks in the comptroller's was at work sending out permits. Most of the permits were sent out by mail.

San Antonio and Houston had special messengers here, who returned with the permits on the first train in order that the permits might be filed in the county court on the same day the permit was issued. The Austin saloon keepers had a representative on hand, and most of the permtis of Austin saloon keepers were filed in the county court Friday.

First to Comply.

Austin, July 13.—The American National Life Insurance company of Galveston is the first to comply in part with the Rubertson insurance law. The state treasurer received from them the stock and municipal bonds for deposit in the state treasury.

Texarkana Salooons Closed.

Texarkana July 13.—The thirty-five saloons on the Texas side have all closed.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves — re-establish them as needed, with

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

GIVES UP HIS LIFE.

Doctor Does So In Interest of Medical Research.

Denver, July 13.—That the cause of medical science might be advanced and conditions of thousands of suffering asthmatics might be improved, Dr. W. W. Robinson, a well known physician and surgeon, gave up his life. Dr. Robinson was thirty-six years old and one of the most prominent and promising physicians in the state. Dr. Robinson was seized with an attack of asthma, from which he had been suffering some time. For several months he has been experimenting with anti-toxine as a cure. Dr. Robinson said to Dr. Bailey, whom he called, that it was a good time to learn the effect of anti-toxine and proceeded to give himself an injection. Shortly afterward his face and lips turned black, he tore his coller from his neck crying that he must have air and in a few minutes fell to the floor dead. Dr. Bailey asserted that Dr. Robinson died from a sudden attack of asthma.

Busy Burglars.

Detroit, Tex., July 13.—Two stores and twelve residences were burglarized here Friday night.

SOCIAL and Club Matters

Mesdames W. S. Howell and R. S. Webb entertained the Browning Club at the home of the former on Wednesday afternoon from 5:30 till 7 o'clock. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. M. W. Sims, who with Col. Sims, Miss Mattie Tabor and Mrs. J. Fred Smith of Dallas, left for Colorado on last night. The ladies assembled under the drooping willows on the broad cool lawn where rugs, pillows and settees and potted plants had been artistically arranged.

Mrs. John Hines read the lesson of the day, "My Last Duchess." Mrs. Tyler Haswell read that exquisite gem of literature, "The Romance of the Swan's Nest," by Mrs. Browning. After this cards were passed and a lively "trunk contest" followed. Mrs. Harry Burger capturing the the favor, a handsome lace fan. Two trays were presented, one bearing the names of all the guests present, the other topics for conversation. Without a moments warning each was presented in turn with a slip and was required to speak two minutes on the subject thereon. Mrs. Tyler Haswell was awarded the prize for eloquence on short notice. After being invited into the dining room a delicious repast, consisting of chicken salad, sandwiches, cheese straws, olives, iced tea, was served, followed by cherry glace and angel food.

A pretty feature of the afternoon was the presentation to the honor guest of the "Browning Magazine." This was a daintily bound book containing clippings of short stories, poems, anecdotes and lines of interest from all the late magazines. Each member contributing a collection and also a letter sealed and pasted in the book, all to be read during the three days' travel to Cool Colorado. The book is a treasure and Mrs. Brandon was requested to present it in the name of the club, Mrs. Sims responding in the following gracious speech:

Ladies, I'm like the Irshman who fell into a well, and his companion, looking down into the dark hole his friend had fallen into, exclaimed Pat, oh! Pat, are you dead? A feeble voice replied, no Mike, but I'm spachless. Yes, friends, I am spachless, for words fail me in attempting to express the gratitude that stirs the depths of my soul for this beautiful compliment paid me by my fair hostesses and my friends here assembled. Dear friends, sweet friends, "I multiply with one I thank you many thousand more that go before it"—not only for this beautifully planned party but for innumerable kind acts that you have extended to me in the past. I hope you will pardon me if I boast just a little on this occasion, and I hope too, you will agree with me in all I say.

I speak from the fullness of my heart when I say that I have the most loyal, the most charming, the most accomplished, the most capable, the cleverest friends in this spacious world. They are women who do things "worth while" not only for themselves but for others. The one and only talent I possess is in discovering people and their talents, and if I am no gifted myself, the next best thing is having gifted friends. My friends are women who can sing and play until you think that the gates of Heaven are ajar and you are listening to the music of the Heavenly choir. They are women who can write with the grace and beauty of George Eliot. They are women who can write and read a poem that will "quiet the restless pluse of care." They are women who if ambitious would occupy "high places in the synagogue." They are women who would grace anything anywhere. They are women who come to you unbidden with their hands full of roses. They are women as redolent of tender sympathy as is a rose with fragrance "and kind hearts are more than coronets." They are women who have made me glad a thousand times that I am living. I am not selfish with these friends. I am willing to share you with each other. But have you my talent of discovery? Let no one insinuate that I wear rose colored glasses. I discover people through my heart and not my eyes. In leaving you dear friedds I'll drink double health to each of you and

"Were it the last drop in the well,
As I gasp'd upon the brink,
Ere my fainting spirit fell
'Tis to you sweet friends I'd drink.
"With that water as this wine
The libation I would pour,
Should be peace with thine and mine
And a health to these my friends."

After adjourning to the verandas a toast to Mrs. Sims was offered by Mrs. Marion Law, to the hostesses of the afternoon by Mrs. Brandon. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Haswell on Thursday. The lesson to be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howell arranged an informal and delightful party Friday evening in honor of Miss Carlton of Waco and Mr. Ben Calhoun of Houston. The cool verandas and pretty lawn were used, and made comfortable with chairs rugs and sofa pillows. A riddle contest proved quite entertaining. Miss Carlton received the prize, a big box of candy. Frank Webb was presented the consolation, a small box of candy. An orchestra seated on the lawn added much to the pleasure of the evening. Mrs. Howell was assisted in entertaining and the serving of peach cream and cake by Misses Emily Peale and Nell Batte. Those present were: Misses Susie Lomax, Frances Chance, Mary Harris, Ethel Carlton, Mary McInnis, Anna Banks of Denton; Messrs. Ed Martin, Meredith James, Henry Roberts, Jim James, Ben Calhoun, Frank Webb.

Several of the young friends of W. S. Howell Jr. gaxe him a most pleasant surprise party Friday evening, the erowd having met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Batte and proceded to the Howell home. Soon after the arrival of the guests the merrymaking began with an amusing contest at eating marshmallows. Miss Stella Johnson was the first to finish and was awarded a box of dainties. After a pleasant hour or two a salad course and ice tea was served. Those present were Misses Lessie Mawhinney, Louise Batte, Mary James, Stella Johnson, Lillian Batte, Madeline Hanway; Chas. Hudson, Henry Wickes, T. C. Nunn Jr., W. S. Howell, Jr.

The J. U. G. Club met Tuesday afternoon with Miss Mary James, where they enjoyed the hospitality of the James home for several hours. The thoughtful mother, Mrs. James, had arranged the room so beautifully with pretty cut flowers and pot plants. After the members had assembled the hostess passed animal crackers. The guests were given the task of drawing each animal on a piece of paper. Miss Lillian Batte proved to be the best artist and was given a pretty puff box. Miss Helen DeMaret was consoled by being presented a box of animal crackers by Miss Louise Batte. Delicious strawberry cream and cake were served.

Miss Lessie Mawhinney entertained a few couples of young friends most charmingly Thursday evening with games and music at the home of her mother. Sherbet and cake were the refreshments ssrved.

Douglas, Ariz., July 13.—Manuel Sarabia, the Mexican who was accused by Mexican authorities with inciting a revolution and who kidnaped from the Douglas jail on the night of June 30, again a free man without the vestige of a charge against him. Mexican Consul Maza and three American officers have been held for trial by the grand jury of the territory on the charge of kidnaping.

Sarabia, who arrived at Naco, a border town near here, accompanied by Ranger Captain Harry Wheeler, expressed himself as being pleased with the manner in which the people of this section came to his assistance. Governor Torres of Hermosillo expressed to Captain Wheeler the greatest regret at the manner in which Sarabia had been treated by officers in his department.

The International American received a letter from Sarabia, dated July 9, while he was in the penitentiary at Hermosillo, in which he described his capture by American officers and his spiriting across the line in an automobile. There, he said, he was placed on a horse "as a sack of potatoes" and compelled to ride for several days to Hermosillo. Sarabia wrote that he kept in communication for nine days, in violation of Mexican law, and concluded with an appeal for assistance.
